

Template for gathering information to share with potential research community partners

This template was adapted from the team-building form used by the MyPaTH Story Booth team building portal (<https://storybooth.pitt.edu/ShareYourStudy.aspx>). The goal of the template is to ensure that when outreach occurs to potential stakeholder partners about engagement opportunities, that it includes the relevant information needed to help them assess the opportunity and decide whether it is right for them.

Study Title:

Principal Investigator

First Name:

Last Name:

Principal Investigator Bio:

Principal Investigator Institution:

Investigator's Title:

Main Area of Research Interest:

Contact Email:

Contact Phone Number:

City:

State:

Please briefly describe the study.

Goals:

Study design:

Age range being studied:

Other features of the study population:

Study duration:

Why this study matters to patients & clinicians:

What can a stakeholder partner can expect if s/he were to work with the study?

Eligibility criteria for stakeholder partners:

Planned compensation for stakeholder partners:

Number of partners you are seeking:

Study status (please select one):

- a. Planning stage
- b. Already funded, not yet started
- c. Study underway